Professional References

SOURCES

Please find below the contact information and position details for three professional references well placed to observe my work during and beyond my graduate studies. These references generally maintain a preference for delivering confidential letters of recommendation, and thus will, in most cases, send their letters separate from my application materials. Any of the following references can be contacted at your convenience or preference, and additional referents can be provided upon request. For each individual, I have supplied a short statement indicating the basic nature of our professional relationship.
